RICHMONDERS MAKE SNUG SUMS IN SLOSS

Rumored That Many Fortunes Have Been Made in Past Few Days.

Few Days.

Interest in "Sloss" stock here in Richmond has been intense for the past week. Its advance has placed many citizens in a state of affluence, and not a few others have made large sums on account of the rapid advance.

On yesterday common stock was as high as 115 and the preferred to 1301 and it is rumored that the end has not yet been reached.

"Sloss" stock is so closely held that the New York syndicate who are after it, are compelled to pay practically any price that is asked by holders.

Those who are in a position to know say that Richmond people have made in the aggregate a very large sum on Sloss.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

Finance Subcommittee Wrestling With Tentative Report on Budget The Subcommittee on Finance, appointed to make up a rough draft of the annual budget for 1905, was at work again vesterday evening, and the report will likely be made to the full committee tonight. The budget will go to the Council at the next meeting, and will then be adopted.

Ordinance Committee Will Hold Session to Discuss the Matter. The Committee on Charter, Ordinances and Reform will meet to-night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of further also cussing the question of annexation. The reports of the City Engineer and City Attorney relating to the subject will be heard and the matter put in shape for presentation to the next meeting of the Council. It is proposed by these officers to extend the lines on the north side so as to take in the Locomotive Works, but this position will cause considerable division in the committee.

MORE SUCCESS IN CURING MENINGITIS

at Gouverneur Died-Many

Were Cured.

Were Cured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Since the publication of the astonishing rescu's obtained by Dr. Edwin Waitzfelder at Gouverneur Hospital in cases of cerebin-sphal mentinglish by the use of diphtheria anti-toxin, the medical profession at large has taken the keenest interest in the new treatment. Dr. Arthur J. Wolff. bacteriologist, of Hartford, who discovered that diphtheria germs destroyed meningitis germs, yesterday spent four hours in examining the cases at Gouverneur Hospital. He expressed his surprise at what had been accomplished, and declared he felt greatly encouraged.

expressed his surprise at what had been accomplished, and declared he-felt greatly encouraged.

Since Dr. Waitzfelder began this treatment some weeks ago, fifteen cases have been treated. One patient, a twenty-year-ofd woman, died four days after entering the hospital.

Another woman who was ill seventeen days at the hospital before the treatment was tried may die. Three recently admitted patients all show improvement, but no progress is as yet possible.

Of the others five have been cured and sent from the hospital without alemish or complication. The latter fact is considered by medican men an astonishing victory, for in this dread disease, in which the mortality runs up as high as eighty per cent, those who survive usually are doomed to suffer worse than death-idiocy, blindness, deafness or paralysis. The remaining five patients have so improved that the house surgeon does not he time to say that their recovery is probable. Of the three little brothers taken from a house in which another brother had ready died, two have been discharged from the hospital, cured, and the other is practically well.

$500.00 Reward.

It seems to me but yesterday when sweet

Maud Muller raked the liny,
As modest judge, with dignity, drove up,
and then drove on his way.
It seems scarcely an hour or more since
raised sash and open door
claiming joud the base-hall score.
It seems to me—but what's the use?
there's little in what seems to me—and the suddled up against the stove, as far from cold as she can be:
I'd like to feel the warm sunshine, ice
water I would throw away—Oh! Mister Farmer Evans, please take back your snow and give us hay.
We hereby warm all brown-eyed girls
and blue-eyed inside that we shall not permit them to fiftr with us on the streets. Hereafter all girls wishing to smile at us must present letters of introduction or other proper credentials before presuming to speak to us on the street.

It has often occurred to us that in the

troduction or other proper credentials bestreet.

It has often occurred to us that in the midst of plenty we are shy many of the things that go towards making of Monroe Park and other places Areadas well worth the whife. With icless hanging from our chin and our beels frost-bitten,
we feel impelled to say that it is mighty hard to have to warm our own feet after putting out the light and giving the youngest heir apparent cough water to has tuntil 5 A. M. We can't get used to the request to take our cold feet over on the other side, and we feel that it would be better to have remained in single hieseedness in a hall room and oil stove.

Anyway, thanks are the the Mayor for getting our neighbors to have the snow
removed from their premises, for we hate to walk through sinsh on the way to our sumptious home, where the hall enepet costs so much we don't feel like buying it every week on our princip salary, for we like to distribute our funds so they will do the most good to the greatest number.

And that's why we are going to see the President sworn in, for funds can be scattered about in Washington like apple blossoms in a summer breeze.

Little Willie got a spanking 'cause he stayed from school.

Little Wille got a spanking 'cause he stayed from school,
Mamma didn't want her boy to grow up as a fool;
Then she took him to the pantry, handed him a piece of pie
And a piece of ginger cookle 'cause he didn't tell a lie.
The moral of this story's clearer than the water in the James—
"Tis the mischief brings the spanking, not the lie that mamma blames."
